

PROGRAM 6 OF 6

— A GUNIBINA STORY, LANGUAGE,
CULTURE & DANCE PROGRAM

THE JOURNEY TOGETHER

Miihi • Bandarr • Guwaymarra •
Dhinawan Yuluwirri

PROGRAM FOUNDATION

Program Foundation

Built from Matt's Day 6 framework, which brings together the Dreaming story of the Miihi bagay, walkabout, Bandarr, Guwaymarra and Dhinawan Yuluwirri dance. This version is structured as a full-day culmination of the six-program journey.

PROGRAM PURPOSE

Program Purpose

This program turns one part of Matt Priestley's original six-part cultural learning framework into a complete standalone day while preserving the source themes and leaving all cultural boundaries, stories and permissions with GuniBina's cultural authority.

PARTICIPANT OUTCOMES

Participant Outcomes

- Bring together the principal story, language, Country and dance elements named across Matt's six-day framework.
 - Give participants an opportunity to demonstrate and reflect on learning without exposing restricted knowledge.
 - Strengthen the relationship between Country, language, cultural guidance and community learning.
 - Close the six-program journey through yarning, reflection and culturally appropriate celebration.
-

The Journey Together

Indicative running order. Timing, access, stories, language and cultural content may be adjusted by the cultural lead according to Country, group needs, weather and cultural protocol.

8:45–9:00

Registration

Arrival and preparation.

9:00–9:25

The Journey So Far

Overview of the key themes carried across the program.

9:25–9:50

Travel On Country

Move to the approved learning place.

9:50–10:20

Cultural Opening

Acknowledgement / appropriate opening.

10:20–10:40

Morning Tea

Break.

10:40–11:20

Dreaming of the Miihi Bagay

Approved story and cultural context.

11:20–12:00

Walkabout

Guided Country experience.

12:00–12:45

Language & Culture Guidance

Revisit approved language and cultural learning.

12:45–1:30

Lunch

Shared meal.

1:30–2:10

Bandarr & Guwaymarra

Grey kangaroo / red kangaroo cultural and language learning.

2:10–2:50

Dhinawan Yuluwirri

Blue Emu learning and dance component.

2:50–3:05

Afternoon Tea

Break.

3:05–3:45

Bringing the Yarn Together

Story, language, Country and dance reflection workshop.

3:45–4:15

Closing Yarn

Questions, reflection and culturally appropriate close.

CULTURAL LEADERSHIP

Cultural Leadership

Delivery is led through GuniBina's Aboriginal cultural authority. Uncle Matt Priestley is the principal cultural lead for this framework, with other appropriate cultural knowledge holders, presenters and facilitators involved according to Country, content and cultural authority.

Cultural Protocols & ICIP

All stories, language, dance, images, recordings and cultural material remain subject to Indigenous Cultural and Intellectual Property (ICIP) principles and the directions of the relevant cultural custodians. Nothing in this program creates permission to record, reproduce, teach or distribute cultural knowledge. Restricted material is not included in this document and is shared only where culturally appropriate.

DELIVERY NOTES

Delivery Notes

-
- Venue / On Country meeting point is confirmed for each delivery.
-
- Participants should wear suitable clothing and footwear and bring water and weather protection.
-
- Photography, filming and recording require prior cultural approval.
-
- The program can be delivered as a standalone day or as part of GuniBina's six-program cultural learning suite.
-